

Kosuke Yoshida

Mr. Kosuke Yoshida graduated the master course in pharmaceutical sciences of Nagoya City University in 1984. He is a pharmacist and having a master degree of pharmaceutical sciences. After the graduation, he was working as a clinical trial monitor in clinical development of Fujisawa Pharmaceutical Co. Ltd for 15 years. Main therapeutic areas, he was assigned, were Infection, Urology, CNS and Autoimmune Disease. From Oct 1999, he was an administrator of clinical SOP and trial relevant systems (CTMS, Document Control system, etc.), and he was a monitor trainer in Fujisawa, and then he worked as the maintenance office of the Global SOP and Training in Astellas Pharm. Inc., which was established in 2005. Now, He works in Contract Medical Affairs Department of Linical Co. Ltd. and his main affairs are to provide the consultation to the pharmaceutical companies and to conduct the post-marketing clinical trials.

He is an establishing member of the Japan Society of the Clinical Trials and Researches (JSCTR), which was established in 2009, and is a board member and a leader of the Seminar Planning and Conducting Team of JSCTR.

Additionally, He is a leader of the Pocket's Reference Book for the multi-regional clinical study.