

KAZUYA IWAMOTO

Kazuya Iwamoto is President of Japanese Association of Pharmaceutical Medicine (JAPhMed). Before that, he served as head of Medical Affairs committee and head of Kansai district committee in JAPhMed. Dr Iwamoto is also Senior Medical Director at Covance. He held other industry leadership positions in R&D and Medical Affairs in biotech and pharmaceutical companies including Eli Lilly, Bayer, Biogen Idec and Hospira. Before joining the industry, he also have over ten years' clinical and research experiences in internal medicine at Kobe University, Hyogo Cancer Center and Kobe Red Cross Hospital. He is Fellow of American College of Physicians (FACP), Fellow of the Japanese Society of Internal Medicine, Fellow of Japanese Association of Gastroenterology and Fellow of Japan Diabetes Society. He holds MD from Hiroshima University, MBA from Globis University and PhD in internal medicine from Kobe University.