

Marco Romano

Dr Marco Romano is Executive Director at Chiltern International since 2007.

In this position, he has full responsibility within the Medical Department including Clinical Development, Medical Support to Clinical Operations, Medical Monitoring and Medical Support to PV Service.

He has over 30 years of pharmaceutical development experience, both in pharmaceutical companies and clinical research organizations. He has successfully managed a number of Phase II, III and IV clinical trials, and since 1998 has held senior management positions within the CRO sector such as Country Manager, Medical Director, Chief Medical Officer

He got the degree in Medicine at the University of Genoa (1983). He got then a Post-Graduate in Hygiene, Epidemiology and Public Health (1987) and another Post-Graduate in Clinical Pharmacology (1994).

He is co-author of several scientific papers concerning mutagenesis and carcinogenesis, pharmacokinetics and pharmacodynamics of chemical compounds and glutathione metabolism.

He is Member of the Italian Medical Association since 1983 and, from May 2014, he is President of the Society for Applied Pharmacological Sciences (SSFA).